President & CEO

Calgary Chamber of Commerce

Deborah Yedlin currently serves as the President and CEO of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce, a position she has held since July 2021.

Under her leadership, the Chamber has focused on Calgary's economic diversification, small business resilience, innovation and inclusive growth. She has worked to elevate the Chamber's voice in policy conversations at all levels of government and position Calgary as a globally competitive business hub.

Her cross-sector experience, including finance, journalism, consulting and academia, has helped bridge private sector interests with public policy and community priorities, reinforcing the Chamber's role in shaping Calgary's future economy.
