

School of Public Policy

VALERIE SEAMAN

Philanthropist

Valerie Seaman is a Calgary-based philanthropist associated with the Palmer Family Foundation, supporting initiatives focused on arts, culture and community development. She has been recognized for the Foundation's major gift to the Glenbow Museum's "Glenbow Reimagined" campaign and has been listed among supporters of the Calgary Homeless Foundation.

Valerie has supported numerous initiatives connected to the University of Calgary, reflecting her broader engagement in civic and academic leadership.