

School of Public Policy

EVAN DUE

Executive Fellow
International Policy

Evan Due is an Executive Fellow at the School of Public Policy, University of Calgary, a sessional lecturer at the Beedie School of Business, Simon Fraser University and an advisor to the Asian Institute of Technology, Bangkok. He has over 35 years of experience in areas of diplomacy and public policy, development cooperation and international trade and economics.

He has held executive positions with the International Development Research Centre (IDRC) of Canada in Singapore and India, Global Affairs Canada in Ottawa, New Delhi and Islamabad and is a recipient of the Government of Canada Award of Excellence. He also served as an advisor to the China Development Research Foundation in Beijing China, the United Nations Economic and Social Commission of Asia and the Pacific in Bangkok, and to the Ministry of Finance, (Policy and Plan Implementation), Government of Sri Lanka.

Evan represented Canada at the OECD Development Assistance Committee and in other multilateral forums. His professional interests include public policy, international business, trade and investment, international development cooperation and economic governance.

He obtained his doctorate from the University of Sussex, U.K.

