

School of Public Policy

FIONA CLEMENT

Research Fellow

Health & Social Policy

Dr. Fiona Clement is a Professor in the Department of Community Health Sciences and the Director of the Centre for Health Policy. An accomplished academic leader, she has an international reputation for her expertise and leadership within health policy and health economics.

Dr. Clement's research has guided evidence-informed changes to legislation, regulatory frameworks and government policy on multiple issues. She has received numerous awards for her work, including being named one of 2020's Most Powerful Women in Canada and being inducted into the Royal Society of Canada's College of New Scholars, Artists and Scientists.