

School of Public Policy

RUDIGER TSCHERNING

Research Fellow

Energy & Natural Resources
Policy

Dr. Rudiger Tscherning is an Associate Professor of Law and a Research Fellow in nuclear law and policy at the School of Public Policy, University of Calgary. His research focuses on the regulation of energy infrastructure development and industrial decarbonization technologies. He is a member the Government of Alberta's Nuclear Energy Engagement and Advisory Panel.

Professor Tscherning participates in several international working groups on nuclear energy, including the OECD Nuclear Energy Agency's Global Forum on Nuclear Education, Science, Technology and Policy and the International Nuclear Law Association. He teaches nuclear and energy law courses at the University of Calgary, holds a PhD in international construction law from Heidelberg University, and previously practiced as a solicitor in London specializing in energy and infrastructure disputes.