

School of Public Policy

TED MORTON

Executive Fellow

Canadian Governance Policy

F.L. (Ted) Morton is currently an Executive Fellow at the School of Public Policy and a professor emeritus in Political Science at the University of Calgary. In 2013-2017, he was Senior Fellow, Energy and Environment, at the Manning Foundation. Ted served as the MLA for Foothills-Rocky View in the Legislative Assembly of Alberta from 2004-2012; and Minister of Energy (2011-12); Minister of Finance (2010); and Minister of Sustainable Resources Development (2006-2009).

Before entering public office, Ted taught in the political science department at the University of Calgary from 1981 to 2004. He returned to teaching from 2012-2017. Ted received his BA from Colorado College (Phi Beta Kappa), and his MA and PhD in political economy at the University of Toronto. Ted has been a visiting scholar at universities in France, Australia, Québec and the United States.

Ted has written and edited eight books, most recently Strong and Free: My Journey in Alberta Politics (2024) and Law, Politics and the Judicial Process in Canada, 5th Ed. (2024). His book, The Charter Revolution and the Court Party (2002) won a Donner Foundation book prize.

