

Canada's Productivity Initiative

- • Investment, Economic Growth &
- • Long-Term Prosperity

School of Public Policy

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

The Honourable Bill Morneau

Executive-in-Residence, Rotman School of Management

Bill Morneau served as Canada's 39th Minister of Finance from 2015 to 2020, and was also Governor at the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. Between 1990 and 2015, Mr. Morneau led the multinational human resources firm Morneau Shepell (now TELUS Health). Mr. Morneau currently serves as Chair of NovaSource Power Services, Director at CIBC and at Clairvest Group Inc., Chair of the Advisory Board of Magnet at Toronto Metropolitan University, Member of The Wilson Center's Canada Institute Advisory Board, and with his wife, Nancy McCain, is Co-Chair of the National Arts Centre's The Next Act campaign. He is a Distinguished Fellow at the Munk School of Global Affairs and Public Policy at the University of Toronto, and an Executive in Residence at the Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto.

In January 2023, he released his book Where to From Here, outlining his views on how Canadian economic policy can increase prosperity. In 2021, he was Senior Fellow at the Jackson Institute at Yale University. Mr. Morneau founded a school for Somali and Sudanese girls in a UN Refugee camp in northern Kenya and is currently sponsoring a scholarship program for young women refugees at the University of Toronto. He is past chair of St. Michael's Hospital, Covenant House, and the C.D. Howe Institute. He holds an M.Sc. (Econ.) from the London School of Economics, an M.B.A. from INSEAD, and a B.A. from Western University.