Senior Deputy Governor Carolyn Rogers

Senior Deputy Governor, Bank of Canada

Carolyn Rogers was appointed Senior Deputy Governor of the Bank of Canada in December 2021 for a seven-year term. She shares responsibility for decisions with respect to monetary policy and financial system stability. She is also a member of the Bank's Board of Directors.

At the time of her appointment, Ms. Rogers was Secretary General of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision. From 2016 to 2019, she was Assistant Superintendent, Regulation Sector, at the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions, where she was responsible for policy-related functions, including capital, accounting and legislation.

Before joining OSFI, Ms. Rogers served as Superintendent and Chief Executive Officer of the Financial Institutions Commission of British Columbia and chaired the Canadian Council of Insurance Regulators. She is also a founding member and past Chair of the Credit Union Prudential Supervisors Association. Born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Ms. Rogers is a Chartered Professional Accountant, with degrees from Brandon University and Queen's University.
