

Breaking Down Barriers: Unlocking Canada's Economic Potential

A Forum on Trade, Regulation & Competition

Mike Davis

Co-Founder, President, and CEO, Davis Pier Consulting

Mike Davis is the Co-Founder, President, and CEO of Davis Pier Consulting. Prior to founding this social impact consultancy in 2014, Mike worked as a consultant, public servant, and researcher with government and community sector partners across Canada, Europe, Africa, and Asia for over 20 years.

His background as an engineer and social scientist brings a unique perspective to social service delivery and Mike is well-regarded for his ability to design and architect truly implementable solutions with community and within government.

Mike's passion for improving the wellbeing of Canadians has been a driving force behind Davis Pier's transformation into a socially-focused consulting agency and its mission: innovative solutions to complex government and social challenges.

Mike has Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Industrial Engineering from Dalhousie University. He also spent two years conducting research on the behaviour and decision-making of people living in poverty while completing his Master's degree in Behavioural Sciences at the London School of Economics. He is certified as a Professional Engineer (P.Eng.) and a Distinguished Fellow with the Dalhousie University Faculty of Management.

Mike is the Vice Chair of the Board of Directors for Kids Help Phone and Chairs its Youth Experience and Innovation Committee. He was named to Province of Nova Scotia's Environmental Racism Panel and dedicates significant time to supporting community organizations with a focus on alleviating poverty and better promoting equity, diversity, and inclusion principles.

For the past several years Mike has been named one of Atlantic Business Magazines Top 50 CEOs, as well as receiving the honour of being named Halifax Chamber of Commerce's Business Leader of the year in 2025. He was also recognized with the prestigious Aurum Award from Dalhousie University for his outstanding achievements in innovation, community engagement, and leadership and his contributions to the social, cultural, and economic well-being of society.
