

Breaking Down Barriers: Unlocking Canada's Economic Potential

A Forum on Trade, Regulation & Competition

Angela Houston

Executive Director, Trade and Economic Policy, Nova Scotia Intergovernmental Affairs

Angela has 22 years' experience at provincial and federal levels of government, with an emphasis on intergovernmental relations, trade, economic development and public health policy.

Angela has a Masters of Public Administration, Dalhousie University, Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, Mount Saint Vincent University, and a Certificate in Negotiation and Conflict Resolution, Dalhousie University.

In her current role, she has represented the Province's interests in the renegotiation of NAFTA, softwood lumber, and on internal trade. The Trade Policy Division is responsible for coordinating government's response to the shift in U.S. trade policy and for implementation of the Free Trade and Mobility Within Canada Act.

Back to Event Page