

Robin Shaban

Chair and Co-Founder, Canadian Anti-Monopoly Project Senior Advisor, Vivic Research

Robin Shaban, PhD (they/them) is the Chair and Co-Founder of the Canadian Anti-Monopoly Project and also a Senior Advisor at Vivic Research. A leading thinker on Canadian competition policy and economic inclusion, Robin has published original research and is a frequent public speaker and media commentator. Robin is co-founder and chair of the Canadian Anti-Monopoly Project, a think tank dedicated to addressing pressing issues caused by monopoly power in Canada. They are also a board member of the Toronto Association for Business and Economics. Robin has fellow roles at the Public Policy Forum and Social Capital Partners. In 2021, Robin received a Changemaker Award from The Globe and Mail for their efforts to advance public policy centered on social justice and their academic work on competition policy. They hold a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Alberta, a master's degree in economics from Queen's University and a doctorate in public policy from the School of Public Policy and Administration at Carleton University.

Back to Event Page